

Coram Adoption: Film Transcript

Pamela

Pamela: My son is nine he's incredibly funny and smart, he's full of beans some of the time.
This is the poem that I got for mother's day:

*Dear mum you're No.1,
I love it when you tickle my tum.
But this is my turn to share my love,
and you do to me, too!*

I wanted to adopt because I wanted to have a child; and I felt for me because the person I was with at the time, I decided I didn't want to have a child with him and the more than I looked into it seeing how many children were up for adoption I felt that there was somebody out there for me.

After the initial meeting with Coram they presented some questions and some things to think about and they were things that were absolutely appropriate to take on board the idea of adopting a child.

The back story to all of this is that they want the best for that child. Their child has been through something and they want to make it as seamless as possible that this child is going to have a great time and going to be in a really good home.

It's a tough one to find the right match! But at Coram they were absolutely brilliant with it and as a single adopter they really pushed because some Councils might not be as up for it as Coram, and they know you and they know what you can handle and what you can manage and what you are looking at.

I think Coram is fantastic. I can't say enough about the experience and what they've allowed me to do. I'm incredibly lucky to have a son like I do and the whole adoption process was fantastic to be able to do this but it's fantastic that he's in my life!
