

Our Adoption Support Team is here to help

Families East Midlands Families are warmly welcomed to contact us for advice, guidance and support at any time – not just if things are difficult. Our aim is to provide opportunities that will support you as your children grow.

Talk to us

We understand that seeking help itself can be challenging. We want to make it as easy as possible for you to share any concerns or worries. This may include: school and education, behaviour management, transitions and your child's life story and life story book.
